

Preparation before going home

- If you don't need further treatment, (EX: operation), you could leave hospital next to the examination day.

Before leaving hospital, doctors will check up the wound and discuss Cardiac Catheterization examination result with relatives. If result of exam shows it needs to change treatment includes medicine and diet, doctors and nurses will provide more comprehensive guide before leaving hospital.